Main Street Announces Public Offering of Common Stock

HOUSTON, March 9, 2015 — Main Street Capital Corporation (NYSE: MAIN) (“Main Street”) announced that it plans to make a public offering of shares of its common stock. The offering of the shares will be made under Main Street’s shelf registration statement, which was filed with, and declared effective by, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Main Street intends to use the net proceeds from this offering to initially repay outstanding debt borrowed under its credit facility, and then through re-borrowing under the credit facility, to make investments in accordance with its investment objective and strategies, to make investments in marketable securities and idle funds investments, to pay operating expenses and other cash obligations, and for general corporate purposes.

Investors should carefully consider, among other things, the investment objective and strategies of Main Street and the risks related to Main Street and the offering before investing. The preliminary prospectus supplement dated March 9, 2015, including the base prospectus dated May 7, 2014, contains this and other information about Main Street and should be read carefully before investing.

Raymond James, Baird and RBC Capital Markets are acting as joint book-running managers for this offering, and Sanders Morris Harris is acting as co-manager for this offering. The shares will be sold pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement on Form N-2 that has been filed with, and has been declared effective by, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The offering is subject to customary closing conditions.
